

Lauren Grodin, Psych.D

Title Pediatric Psychology

Biography

Dr. Lauren Grodin is a licensed psychologist who specializes in working with children, adolescents, and their families.

She is experienced in providing comprehensive evaluations and treatment interventions to assist youth and their families coping with behavioral and emotional concerns, medical conditions, and learning and developmental disabilities.

Dr. Grodin earned her doctoral degree in clinical psychology at Nova Southeastern University. She completed her predoctoral internship and postdoctoral fellowship at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine and the Kennedy Krieger Institute, where she focused on working with children, adolescents, young adults, and their families with chronic and acute medical conditions, developmental disabilities, and behavioral and emotional difficulties.

Dr. Grodin has been a Board Member with the NNPDF since February 2011. The NNPDF holds a special place in her heart as her younger brother, Scott, lost his battle with Niemann-Pick Type C on June 6, 2000.
